

Tolpuddle Man

Graham Moore

Fare - well to my fam'-ly, it's now I must 7 leave you, that far fa-tal shore in chains we shall see. Al - though we are 13

ta-ken, do not be mis - ta-ken; as bro-thers in un - i - on we shall be 19

free. They can bring down our wa - ges, starve all our child-ren, in free. They can bring down our wa - ges, starve all our child-ren, in

24
chains they can bind us, steal all our land. They can mock our re - li-gion, from our chains they can bind us, steal all our land. They can mock our re - li-gion, from our

30
fam'-lies di - vide us, but they can't break the oath of a Tol-pud-dle man.
fam'-lies di - vide us, but they can't break the oath of a Tol-pud-dle man.

To those who rule us we are the Dissenters Do your duty, be thankful, don't complain we are taught For God in his wisdom divided his kingdom
For few to have much while so many have nought

As brothers together with an oath we will bind us
The labouring poor in all England shall rise Though Frampton has framed us they never will tame us Arise men and women, we'll yet win the prize